The House—MORNING SESSION.

The House met pursuant to adjournment.
Quorum present.

A communication from Treasurer Dorn, relative to information saked for, states that, owing to the condition of the office records, the information as to what sums have been paid on university lands cannot at present be ascernaned, but it will be made up as soon as possible.

ascerained, but it will be made up as soon as possible.

The special order, cut off by adjournment on the provious day, was the House bill to authorize the sale of alternate sections of land as surveyed by railroad companies and set spart for the bemoft of the common school fund. Section seven was being debated when Storey moved to refer it to the Committee on Judiciary No. 2, which was lost.

Mr. Stuart, of Falls offered a substitute to the substitute. It authorizes county courts to sugage the County Surveyor, or any ether surveyor they think proper, to survey and sectionize all lands at present unsurveyed. Also authorizes the Governor to appoint, on the application of any person wishing to purchase, three commissioners, (readent free-holders,) to appraise the value of the land in question.
